Nitrate Blast Kills Six in Pennsylvania

MARSHALLS CREEK, Pa. (AP)—A truck loaded with ammonium nitrate caught fire and exploded early today in this Pocono Mountain resort area, killing at least six persons and injuring some 10 others.

The blast, which left a crater 10 feet deep and at least 30 feet wide, eyewitnesses said, leveled the Pocono reptile farm and scattered dangerous snakes in the area.

The driver of the truck, Albert Kuda, of Port Carbon, Pa., working for American Cyanamid Co., Pottsville, Pa., told state police he had a flat tire which caught fire on Route 209 some three miles from here and he went to call for help.

Three fire trucks from the volunteer Marshalls Creek fire station responded to the call and arrived just as the truck exploded, fire officials said.

All three trucks were destroyed in the blast and three firemen killed. Kuda was not injured.

Firemen at the scene, along with local and state police, tracked down and killed rattlesnakes, copperheads and coon skins freed by the blast.

Windows were blown out in homes as far away as Stroudsburg, 10 miles away.

Homes in the immediate vicinity were shattered, doors blown off and windows knocked out.

William Paesch, 30, of Baltimore, Md., and his wife were in their station wagon just behind the truck.

"I saw flames and in no more than a matter of seconds I saw a large red glow and heard an explosion," he said.

His wife was killed in the explosion. Hospital officials said she died of an apparent concussion. Paesch was treated for cuts and bruises and released from Monroe County General Hospital at Stroudsburg.

Other dead were tentatively identified as firemen Leonard Mosier, Earl Miller and Ed Heins. Also reported killed was John Regina, son of the owner of Regina Hotel. Scattered remains of another person were found.

The scene of the blast is in the northeastern Pennsylvania resort area.

Collision in Oklahoma Kills Seven

BOSWELL, Okla. (AP)—A head-on collision between two cars early today killed seven persons and critically injured an eighth.

Highway patrolmen said the accident occurred two miles west of Boswell on U.S. 70, in the Lake Texoma area.

Dead on arrival at a Durant, Okla., hospital were, C. R. Brackett Jr., driver of one car, and his passengers, Glenn Rusby and M. Mack McMenamy; and Mabel B. Newton, 30 driver of the second car; her husband Raymond A. Newton, 31, and their two daughters, aged 11 and 5.

The Newtons were from Russellville, Ga.

In critical condition was a woman passenger with the Newtons, Vassie T. Johnson, 20.

Officers said Mrs. Newton apparently dozed at the wheel and swung across the highway dividing line into the path of the Brackett car.

Detective Agency Is Ransacked

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Employees reporting for work at an East Los Angeles office found a hole in the ceiling, the office thoroughly ransacked, and a note reading: "So, solve this one. (Signed) Ace."

The office where the burglary was discovered Thursday was the L. F. Clark Detective Agency.

Living Cost Has Remained Unchanged

WASHINGTON (AP)—Food and housing prices dropped in May, but most other consumer goods increased in price and living costs remained unchanged from the month before the Labor Department said today.

The consumer price index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics stood for the second straight month at 107.8.

The figure means it cost $10.78 in both April and May to buy typical consumer goods that cost $10 in the 1957-59 period on which the index is based.

Lower meat and egg prices were the main factors in a two-tenths of one per cent drop in food costs.

Fruit and vegetable prices remained unchanged. Sugar dropped slightly, but was still up more than 6 per cent from a year ago, and coffee climbed another 2.3 per cent, to an over-the-year total increase of nearly 23 per cent.

The bureau ascribed both the sugar and coffee price developments to the world supply situation.

Miss El Dorado Is Selected

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Márcia Love, 18, won a title here Thursday night that started another El Dorado girl on the path to the nation's top beauty crown.

Miss Love was named Miss El Dorado, and she said assuming the title won last year by Donna Axum, the reigning Miss America, was "the most wonderful feeling in the world."

The new Miss El Dorado is 5-foot-3 and has blonde hair and blue eyes. She is a 1964 graduate of El Dorado High School and plans to attend North Texas State Teachers College at Denton.

Miss Love is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Love of El Dorado.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Pensacola Construction Co. of Kansas City submitted the apparent low bid here Wednesday to construct revetments and dikes, and to place additional stone on existing pile dike on both sides of the Arkansas River southwest of Conway. The firm's bid was $424,170, and the Army Engineers' estimate of the cost was $415,000.

Tired of Having the Same Old Fears, Would Like to Have Some Fresh Anxieties

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Are you tired of having the same old fears?

Wouldn't you like some fresh anxieties to fret over to make your life more interesting?

Well, be of good cheer. The possibilities are endless.

Medical dictionaries now list some 300 or more specific fears, and the list is growing. They all have wonderfully impressive-sounding names, and the chances are you have had some of these fears all along and never knew it.

If you hate losing a golf match, your friends may merely put you down as a poor sport. But if you tell them you're suffering from rhabdophobia—which is the fear of being beaten—they're bound to feel more sympathetic.

Perhaps it embarrasses you if the boss catches you dozing in your swivel chair at the office. Put your ailment down as hypnophobia, the fear of falling asleep.

If you hate being alone, you have got monophobia; if you can't stand crowds, you're a victim of ochlophobia — and probably also aphephobia, the fear of physical contact.

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the sawmill building and damaged machinery last night at the Graydon Anthony and Sons mill in the industrial area of the Proving Ground.

The loss was confined to the sawmill and none of the other buildings were damaged. Local firemen were called to the scene and managed to save the sawing carriage machine. However, the building and other equipment in it burned.

First estimates placed the loss from $50,000 to $75,000. Mr. Anthony indicated the mill was not insured.

Lashes Out at Johnson, Goldwater

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

DETROIT (AP)—Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton hit today at what he termed failure of President Johnson's administration and "ostriches" within his own Republican party to cope with problems of automation.

"The underlying philosophy of the Johnson administration boils down basically to this: Delay automation as long as possible, harassing industry," Scranton declared in remarks prepared for delivery in this industrial city only hours before Johnson would appear here for an evening address at a $100 a plate Democratic fundraising dinner.

Turning on the GOP, Scranton, who is seeking the Republican presidential nomination, declared:

"I must tell you that I think no more highly of the response of the ostriches in our own party. Their response appears to be: Bury your head in the one prairie, until this and all other problems somehow go away."

Though Scranton did not mention Sen. Barry Goldwater by name, in the light of recent statements by Scranton his remarks appeared aimed at the Arizona senator. Goldwater presently holds a big edge in delegate strength for the nomination.

Scranton is campaigning in Michigan with hopes he could put some 45 Michigan delegates on ice for secondballot support at next month's San Francisco convention.

Scranton proposed five points to meet the problem of automation "and to translate its benefit into a better, happier, more productive future for all of our people."

His proposals: Remove restrictions on automation so that the nation can "maintain our competitive position in world trade" by turning out "all the goods that our economy can produce."

Encourage labor and management to "accept their full share of the responsibility for solving the shortage problems (of automation) that will be created."

"Launch a massive program of job retraining." Gear education to "meet the needs of the new economy and the new society" and provide more funds through "altered" federal tax disbursements.

Establish a state and national clearing house "to match available workers with available jobs."

Russia Sends New Warnings

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union said today it has sent new warnings to the United States, Britain and France restating its determination to defend the frontiers of East Germany.

The warning was contained in notes handed to the three Western embassies in Moscow Thursday, Tass news agency reported.

The notes charged that attempts are being made to justify what they called Bonn's "provocative" action in holding the federal presidential elections in West Berlin.

Worst Violence Outbreak at St. Augustine

By PAUL WILLS

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—Hundreds of white segregationists raced into a civil rights march Thursday night, screaming and flailing at Negroes in this city's worst outbreak of racial violence.

Integration leader Rev. Martin Luther King said only the non-violence of Negroes "saved the city from a bloody night of terror."

At least 45 persons were injured and 15 of them were treated at a hospital. Dozens were arrested.

Protests were halted today as integrationists asked federal court in Jacksonville to overturn an order by Gov. Farris Bryant barring any group—integrationist or segregationist—from demonstrating after 8:30 p.m.

King said that he appealed to the White House for help at the height of Thursday night's melee and was assured the matter would be investigated. He frequently has called for federal marshals' protection.

For the first time in three weeks of almost daily confrontations, State Police were openly threatened. On at least two occasions, angry whites surrounded isolated groups of state troopers and tried to liberate Negro prisoners.

The Negro parade moved into the downtown square exactly like others which have been held. The proposed route went around the side of the square in which at least 200 whites were Thursday's high temperatures ranged up to 95 degrees at El Dorado. Overnight minimum temperatures in the 60s had Arkansas residents turning off air conditioners and window fans over the entire state.

Dulles Sees No Explosion Sign in Mississippi

By MICHAEL SMITH

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)—Presidential factfinder Allen Dulles says he doesn't see "any likely explosion" in this Deep South state over the baffling disappearance of three civil rights workers.

U.S. sailors joined state and federal officers again today to comb this east central Mississippi area for any clues to the trio, missing since last Sunday.

President Johnson ordered the sailors from the nearby Meridian Naval Air Auxiliary Station to join the search late Thursday. One hundred sailors teamed with FBI agents and Mississippi highway patrolmen to wallow knee deep in mud through snake infested swamps. Another 100 sailors were on standby duty at their base.

Michael Schwerner, 24, and Andrew Goodman, 21, both of New York City, and James Chaney, 22, a Meridian Negro, were last seen Sunday night when released from jail here after paying a speeding fine.

The only clue to their mysterious disappearance was the finding Tuesday of their burned out station wagon 17 miles north east of Philadelphia.

Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, was expected to brief President Johnson today on his mission to Mississippi. Dulles returned Thursday night to Washington after two days in this state.

"I don't see any likely explosion," Dulles told an im promptu airport news conference in Washington.

He hastened to add: "The situation requires careful handling."

Dulles, who did not come to Philadelphia, said the search for Schwerner, Goodman and Chaney "is in good competent hands."

Before leaving the state he met at Jackson for 90 minutes with state civil rights leaders and again conferred with Gov. Paul B. Johnson.

Two of the civil rights leaders who met with Dulles later asked for a personal meeting with President Johnson to discuss the racial situation in this state.

"Negroes now feel a kind of frustration never experienced before," Aaron Henry of Clarksdale and Charles Evers of Jackson said in a telegram to the White House.

Henry is state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Evers, brother of the late Medgar Evers, who was slain by a sniper a year ago, is the organization's field secretary.

Bus Blows Tires, Three Are Killed

MADERA, Calif. (AP)—A chartered bus carrying 32 members of a Chinese drum and bugle corps blew a tire and overturned on Highway 99 three miles north of here today, killing at least three persons and injuring the rest, some of them critically.

The highway patrol said the bus, bound from Los Angeles from statewide drum and bugle competition in Sacramento, went out of control when the left front tire blew out.

The bus swerved across the center divider, crossed the southbound lanes, crashed into the roadside embankment and slid for about 40 feet. Patrolmen said the bus apparently overturned completely, coming back to rest on its wheels.

Nine of the injured were admitted to Madera County Hospital. Several were in serious or critical condition, attendants said.

Frisky Steer Heads the Stampede

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A frisky young steer led the big stampede through Mockingbird Valley Thursday night.

The hour-long chase by several policemen and 50 stick-waving residents from a golf course and onto suburban streets ended with a Western-style roping.

Then the 650-pound animal shook free and led the gang on a 90-minute romp before he was captured again.

Owner Kenneth Dennis of Louisville said the animal had jumped a fence to get away.

"The Congressman has answered roll calls and voted 4,183 times on the record and several thousand times where there was no record vote. "These votes have been for war, peace, national defense and security, and on every conceivable issue."

"The Nation is on the move. The competition under our free enterprise system was never more intense," he says. "It is therefore highly important that we have the best, most capable representation possible in the Congress. It is no sandlot ball game; it is the major league."

Pointing out that by continuous service and seniority, under a long-established rule in the congress, one becomes chairman of a major committee. He says "it took me 16 years to get to be chairman of the Commerce Committee."

It is in this way, with the proper training and ability, that one attains a position of influence and recognition in the Congress, and that the "District participates to a greater extent in the formulation of policies of the national Government."

The Congressman points out that the people of the District have an investment in him because of his service, and that he "wants you to have the full benefit of it. Your dividend, to which you are entitled, is the greatest possible service to all the people."

Congressman Harris again points out that he has vigorously and consistently opposed the Civil Rights Bill as an invasion of the Commerce Clause and a violation of the constitutional freedom of the people. He has continuously opposed the Foreign Aid Programs, and such other subsidy programs as Mass Transportation.

However, he outlines a 12-point positive and responsible program, fundamental to our future welfare, for which he has worked during all these years and which he believes will continue to benefit all the people and strengthen America, as follows:

"1. I believe in maintaining a strong and powerful defense to provide for our national security. We have it today. It is the only weapon the Godless communists respect, and we must continue to recognize that communism is our deadly enemy."

"2. I believe that we should continue to strive for peace in the world and, ultimately, a reduction in the excessive cost of our military programs. The cost of providing for and maintaining our military program requires nearly 60 per cent of our total Federal budget."

"3. I believe we should make every possible effort toward translating our atomic energy and nuclear development for peaceful pursuits — the health and welfare of humanity."

"4. We should strive diligently for a sound, dynamic and progressive economy to meet the requirements of a growing nation, expanding population, and the needs of the people."

"5. Congress has just reduced the high tax burden by more than 11 billion dollars, which I supported to encourage and stimulate the economy. We must continue the adjustment of the tax burden to provide even greater incentive for business and to preserve and strengthen our competitive free enterprise system."

"6. I believe in the protection of the rights of labor to organize and bargain collectively for better working conditions and adequate pay for reasonable living standards."

"7. I believe in a sound common carrier transportation system."

Spraggins on Sunday.

Capt. and Mrs. James N. Holt, Todd and Thad of Dayton, O., will arrive this weekend to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B.N. Holt.

"DEAR ABBY"

RELY ON YOUR INTUITION!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: Recently we started seeing a lot of a certain couple. I have always liked them both but we have never been real close friends. For the past few months I have had the feeling that something was going on between this woman and my husband. I have never been jealous before. When I first got that feeling, I told my husband about it. He denied everything and I felt like a fool. I haven't mentioned it since, but I am not a fool. All of a sudden she has been planning things for the four of us to do almost every night, and she does favors for me that are uncalled for. I don't like the looks that pass between them or the way they always manage to sit close to each other, or the way they dance together, either. I've never had to cope with this in 20 years of marriage. Should I keep my mouth shut and keep watching or what? My woman's intuition is strong.

NERVOUS WRECK
Dear Wreck: Your woman's intuition is probably better than Scotland Yard. Tell your husband in plain language that you are jealous, you sense danger and you have no intention of sharing or losing him. If he fights too hard to continue the friendship, you will know your suspicions were correct, in which case you had better enlist the help of the other husband.

Dear Abby: A few months ago my wife's mother came to live with us. Everything is fine, except when we go out for a ride. I have a two-door automobile. My mother-in-law is 78, and quite large. She always climbs in the front, which seats two comfortably, but with three it's crowded. It is also dangerous, because I have only two seat belts in front, and they are being sat on—not used. I certainly am not going to put my wife in the back seat alone, so she's up front next to her mother, near the door. My mother-in-law can't very well straddle that hump on the floor, so she puts both her feet next to mine, which interferes with my driving. She leans heavily toward me, so her head is right in my rear-view mirror. I don't enjoy these rides, but I go anyway because my wife says her mother needs the fresh air. Is there a solution?

SKIP MY NAME
Dear Skip: It is not easy to get most large 78-year-old women into or out of the back seat of a "two-door automobile." But that's where "mother" belongs. Get a car with two more doors (Detroit will love you!) and enjoy a safer ride.

Meat counters also had rock cornish hens, canned hams and smoked pork butts on their list.

Dear Abby: No uglier facet of human personality is there than was shown by the critics who wrote to tell you that they would not stop to help an injured animal in the road. Surely you are not surprised! Thirty-eight cowards watched a New York woman being stabbed to death. They should hang their heads in shame. Twenty-three years ago, on an Iowa farm, a mad bull had my father pinned to a fence. My frail little mother was alone on the farm. She got a pitchfork and fought the bull back into the barnyard. Dad had suffered a broken nose, but we had him for another fifteen years.

EX-IOWA GIRL
Confidential to "Another Wife Of A Retired Husband": Be glad that husband is still "underfoot"—instead of six feet under. Many widows would love to have your problem.

Beef Good Buy in Many Markets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef continued this week to hold the spotlight among week-end specials in supermarkets and neighborhood stores.

There also was an abundance of other meat cuts, poultry and fish for hot weather menus.

One big Eastern supermarket chain featured top and bottom round roasts at 69 cents a pound. Another special was oven ready leg of lamb at 69 cent a pound, down 6 cents from last week.

Eggs, another popular item for rounding out summer meals, were down 2 cents a dozen in some regions.

Meat counters also had rock cornish hens, canned hams and smoked pork butts on their list.

holding a segregation rally. When the Negro column approached, the whites burst through police lines and into the marchers with fists. Some of the Negroes were hit; some of the whites were clubbed by police and arrested.

The parade disintegrated and never reformed. Remnants of the march continued around the square with whites attacking again and again. Finally, the march turned into a rout. The Negroes ran toward their section of town, pursued by screaming whites who would hit once or twice, and race on.

The marchers struggled back to their starting point with some near hysteria.

King said that some were ready to get guns and return to the scene of the downtown riot.

Segregationist leaders told newsmen afterward that counterdemonstrations would continue as long as the Negro demonstrated.

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

XXIX
I went into the bar. Nick Pot... it was there, sitting at the bar this time. I went over and took the next stool. I ordered a martini.
Nick looked at me coldly. "Think you're pretty smart, don't you?"
"I can't imagine what you mean, Nick," I said.
"Shaking us this afternoon." "Oh, that. You know how it is, Nick. A man wants a little privacy once in a while. Where's your playmate?"
"He had to leave."
"So I heard."
He looked at me. "I don't like you, March. It's going to be a real pleasure if you step out of line."
"It's a funny world. Johnny Clark likes me and you don't like me, but you both want the same thing to happen to me." I glanced at my watch.
"What's your hurry?" he said. "You're not going any place until the midnight plane."
"You've been snooping again, Nick."
He smiled but there was no humor in it. "I saw you come in. I thought you did a lot of talking to the clerk. So I went out and hung around the desk. I heard him make the reservation for you and then call you."
"And I suppose you now have a reservation on the same plane?"
"That's right."
It was cheerful daylight when I left the plane in New York. I waited at the luggage counter and reclaimed my baggage. Then I waited at one side until Nick had his.
"I thought I'd save you some worry," I told him. "I'm going to my apartment on Perry Street and get some more sleep. You can stand out on the street and watch if you like."
When I awakened, I put on a pot of coffee and showered while it was percolating. I had a cup and decided it was time I got to work. I picked up the phone and dialed the number of police headquarters. I asked for Lieutenant Rockland.
"Johnny," I said when he answered, "this is Milo."
"I thought you were out of town."
"I was. I just got in this morning. Do you know Manny Roberts?"
"I'm a cop. Remember?"
"Suppose he wanted to help a guy disappear. What do you think he'd do?"
"If I know Manny, he'd have the guy shot."
"No, this would be a man who had to be kept alive."
"What are you working on, Milo?"
"Thomas Rako. The Carrier Workers union guy who disappeared seven years ago right after making an appearance before a Congressional committee. He was silent for a minute while I outlined the Rako case for him. Then he said: 'Roberts has most of the bookies from here, halfway to Albany, and his out of town operation has its headquarters in Newburgh, in Orange County. You might try there. Anything else I can do for you?'"
"No, but maybe I can do something for you. Know Jerry Dell?"
"Why do you ask?"
"He's in New York."
"Is that so?" he asked sarcastically. "Do you mean to tell me that he came in last night on a flight from San Francisco?"
"You know, huh?"
"Look who's talking. One of my men was out at the airport last night. He spotted Dell and followed him to a hotel. Dell spells trouble so I put a stake-out on the hotel."
"That's a break," I said. "Who'd he see in New York?"
"Nobody, unless it was somebody who sneaked into the hotel. He never left it until this morning, when he went to 41st Street and took a bus out of the city."

Crandell Dims Record Set by Koufax

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

Sandy Koufax set his record but the 35,930 Candlestick Park fans who saw him do it probably will remember Del Crandell's performance a lot longer.

Koufax has struck out 10 or more batters in a game 54 times before, but how many times has Crandell had four hits in a game?

It was the veteran catcher's fourth safety of the night that broke up a 13-inning oldtime Giant-Dodger donnybrook Thursday night and gave San Francisco a 2-1 squeaker over Los Angeles.

Crandell, acquired from Milwaukee last winter, delivered the key blow in the final inning after hits by Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda and an intentional walk to Jim Ray Hart had loaded the bases.

Crandell, batting .188 going into the game, cracked his game-ending hit off Nate Oliver's glove as Cepeda scampered across with the winning run.

Four innings earlier, Koufax had broken the mark he shared with Rube Waddell and Bob Feller, by reaching the 10-or-more strikeout plateau for the 55th time in his career.

The Dodgers got their first run on Ron Fairly's third homer of the year in the seventh. San Francisco tied it on Mays' walk and steal of second and Tom Haller's pinch single in the eighth.

In other National League games, Pittsburgh whipped New York for the 11th time in 13 meetings, 8-1, and St. Louis rallied for three runs in the eighth inning to whip Houston 4-2.

In the American League, Baltimore completed a three-game sweep of New York, 3-1, Cleveland defeated Minnesota 8-1 and Los Angeles won its ninth straight, 4-3 over Kansas City.

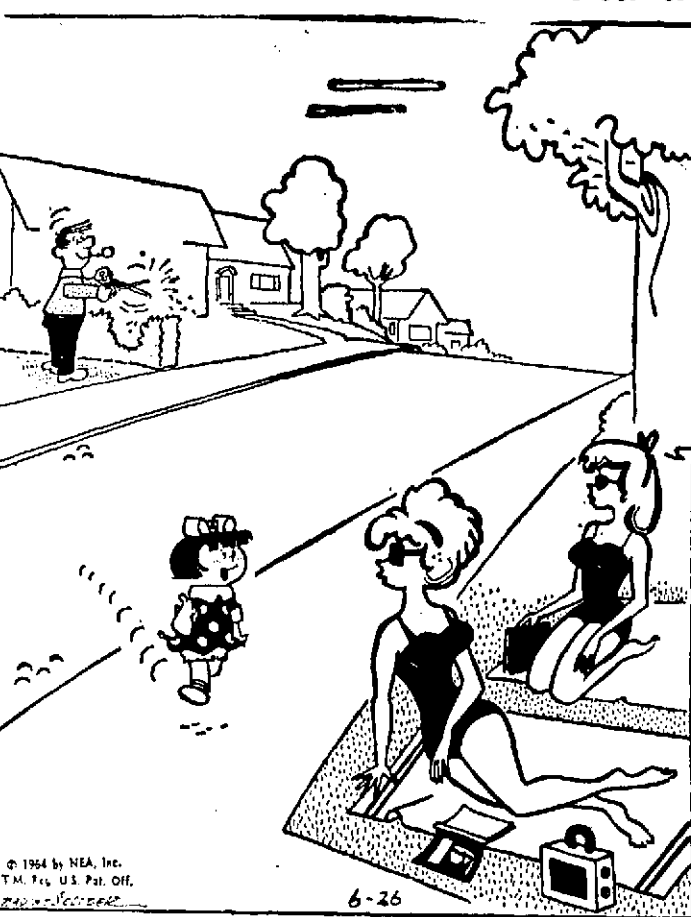

Jerry Lynch hammered two homers and Bill Mazeroski had one as the Private piled up an early lead against the Mets. The 13-hit attack made it easy for Joe Gibbon, who fired a four-hitter.

Ron Hunt had two hits for the Mets and scored their only run. It was New York's fifth straight loss and 13th in the last 14 games.

Ken Boyer and Dick Groat cracked eighth inning doubles to drive in the three Cardinal runs as St. Louis rallied to beat Bob Bruce. Boyer's two-run

Bob Aspromonte drove in both Houston runs with a pop fly double in the second inning and a homer in the sixth.

Yankees Pull Upset in Doctors Loop

By Ralph Rauton

Last night at K park in Doctors league play the Blue Sox dubbed the White Sox 18-4 and the Yankees upset the Red Sox in a real thriller, 2-0. In the third game of the night the Giants gained a tie for the loop lead by dropping the Braves 11-1.

In the best upset of the year the Yanks scored in the first when Frank Howell walked and Travis Bailey hit a homer, aided by errors, and that was the ball game.

Next Thursday the Blue Sox meet the White Sox, the Red Sox are matched with the Braves in the second contest while the Giants and the Yanks make up the third game.

Family in Hawaii, Raps Maryland

HONOLULU (AP)—Atheist Madalyn Murray's family has moved into a temporary home in Honolulu after receiving various offers of shelter—including one from a church.

The Rev. Delwyn Rayson, a Congregationalist minister, said he hoped the embattled Maryland atheist "finds peace and happiness in Hawaii."

The Unitarian Church said it would offer the Murray family refuge.

Mrs. Murray, her mother, Beonna Mays; her brother, John D. Mays Jr.; sons Garth, 9, and Bill, 18; and Bill's bride, the former Susan Abramovitz, 17, arrived in Hawaii under assumed names Tuesday.

The family fled Baltimore after a fracas there with police, and went to Hawaii seeking religious asylum.

Mrs. Murray, 45, a divorcee, won a court suit last year that brought a Supreme Court ban on compulsory prayers in the nation's schools.

The family settled into a temporary home Wednesday but kept the address secret.

Several members of the family are charged with assaulting Baltimore police. But Maryland's attorney general, Thomas B. Finan, visiting in Hawaii, commented Mrs. Murray "is not worth extraditing back to Maryland."

The family's hasty Baltimore departure sprang from trouble with the police following the marriage of Bill Murray to Susan Abramovitz, 17. Susan's parents accused Mrs. Murray of inducing Susan to abandon her Jewish faith.

When police served a court contempt citation on the bride, accusing her of violating a judicial order to stay away from the Murrys, a melee broke out.

Orioles Again Trim Yanks for a Sweep

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
Dust off the first chair, boys—Baltimore's fanciest Barber is back in business!

Steve Barber, who bossed the Orioles' pitching corps a year ago with a 20-13 mark, can count his 1964 victories on one hand. But the three-hit, nine-strikeout trim job he did on New York Thursday night in a 3-1 verdict over the Yankees had all the earmarks of a return to 1963 form.

The southpaw's effort, coupled with home runs by Boog Powell and Brooks Robinson, gave the Orioles a sweep of the three-game series and stretched their American League lead over the Yanks to 2½ games.

A month ago, Barber was still looking for his first victory. He had started five games, finished none and was laboring with a sore arm and a 6.63 earned run average.

Now he's 4-4 with two complete games in his last three starts and a 3.79 ERA. His left arm is healthy again, which is more than can be said for the Yankees' image.

They came into Baltimore on a five-game win skunk and left with their heads shaved. Manager Yogi Berra, however, was unruffled.

"We're one game behind (in the loss column) with 98 to play," he purred.

While the Orioles were mistreating New York for the third straight time, the red-hot Los Angeles Angels captured their ninth in a row, nipping Kansas City 4-3, and climbed into a sixth-place tie with idle Boston. Cleveland overpowered Minnesota scheduled.

St. Louis topped Houston 4-2. Pittsburgh beat the New York Mets 8-1 and San Francisco nipped Los Angeles 2-1 in 13 innings in National League activity.

Barber's scissors slipped once against the Yanks. Joe Pepitone led off the third inning with his ninth homer. But Powell's 16th circuit—his third in the series—and Robinson's eighth, both off loser Jim Bouton, gave Barber all the runs he needed before crowd of 36,369 fans, largest Baltimore crowd of the season.

Bob Rodgers' sixth-inning single scored Bob Perry, snapping a 3-3 deadlock at Los Angeles and extending the longest winning streak in Angel history. Nrd Newman recorded his fourth straight victory with the aid of Dan Osinski's scoreless three-inning relief stint.

Veterans Jim Piersall and Vic Power each delivered runs in the Angels' three-run third inning. Oil Bryan hit a solo homer for the A's, who scored twice in the top of the sixth, to tie it.

Max Alvis crashed his third homer in two games and Jack Kralick won his eighth game in 10 decisions as the Indians cuffed former teammate Mud-three hits and combined with reliever Don McMahon for a three-hitter.

Larry Brown also homered to Cleveland and Dick Howser went 3-for-5. The Twins' Bob Allison stretched his hitting cat Grant. Kralick collected string to 15 games with a fourth-inning double.

Russellville to Get Tube Plant
RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The Russellville Industrial Development Corp., announced Wednesday that Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. will build an inner tube manufacturing plant on a 40-acre tract here.

Officials said they hope to have the plant in production before Dec. 31. It will eventually employ 200 persons.

The plant will be Firestone's second in Arkansas. The firm has produced lifeboats, aircraft fuel cells, coated fabric containers and other defense products since 1955 at a plant in Magnolia.

Russellville voters approved a bond issue to form the industrial district where the new plant will be built. Cost of the plant was not announced.

Acted Out Catch and It Fooled Them

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (AP)—As a high fly hit by Dan Napoleon soared toward the fence Thursday night, evidently bound for home run territory, it was suddenly snared from the air in a spectacular catch—or so it appeared.

But later, outfielder John May of the Binghamton Triplets in the Class A New York-Pennsylvania League admitted he didn't catch the ball after all. He said he went through the gestures, but actually substituted the ball that was hit out of the park, with one he had in his uniform pocket.

May apologized to Auburn Manager Clyde McCullough and explained he was sorry to Binghamton Manager Andy Paiko, who said as far as he was concerned the incident "is closed."

Napoleon was credited with the homer.

Auburn won the game, 8-2.
